New for 2009..... A Sensory Experience

Six Flags Great Adventure, has unveiled "Bizarro". Based on the DC comics character, Bizarro, the much anticipated name of the dramatically transformed coaster previously called Medusa has finally been revealed. The world's first floorless, looping coaster, Medusa will now deliver a multi-sensory ride experience with all-new thematic and innovative, state-of-the-art visual, audio and sensory effects launching it into another dimension of thrills and excitement. Six Flags Great Adventure continues to push the envelope — going far beyond traditional coasters to offer thrill seekers the exhilaration of a roller coaster combined with unique storytelling and high tech elements incorporating fire, fog, water and precisely orchestrated audio production designed to assault the senses for a world class "show" on a roller coaster.

Award Winning Company Brings New Fireworks Show in 2009!!

Beginning July 4, Six Flags Great Adventure will debut one of the most dynamic, astounding fireworks series in the company's history with "Saturday Night Lights" featuring the internationally award-winning production, "Rock Loves." "Saturday Night Lights will knock your socks off and undoubtedly be one of the most amazing fireworks series in the country. It will be the 'must see' event of 2009." (Running Saturday nights July 4 through Labor Day)
